Release of Liability - North Dakota Equine Association 2023

The Vendor, by signing this release, expressly assumes all risks associated with, resulting from or arising in connection with the Vendor's presence or participation at the North Dakota Equine Association and The Cowboy Fall Festival, including without limitations, to all risks of theft, loss, damage, or injury to the person (including death), property, business, or out of acts or failure to act as a Vendor or his representatives at the expo.

North Dakota Equine Association (NDEA) it's volunteers and committee members shall not be held responsible for, and shall be excused from, non-delivery of the location if non-delivery is due to fire, flood, earthquake, elements of nature or acts of god, acts of war, terrorism, riots, civil disorders, rebellions, or revolutions, or any other similar cause beyond the reasonable control of NDEA. If the NDEA is unable to hold the event for any reason stated in this paragraph, NDHE will NOT reimburse the vendor for rental fees paid here under. COVID19 pandemic effects on this event will be followed by state regulations. If regulations force the event to be canceled, vendors will be reimbursed their deposit.

North Dakota Equine Association recommends that the vendor carry fire and liability insurance covering trade shows and fairs which insures their goods and exhibits against damage and loss or personal injury. Should the vendor choose not to carry insurance, they waive any and all responsibility from NDEA, its committee and any other associates and accept all risks involved.
